MAN KILLED BY CARS.

-Fatal Accident Last Night-General Matters.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Star. ALEXANDRIA, Va., September 22, 1904. The remains of the man who was killed on the Pennsylvania railroad at Waterloo, between here and Washington, September 9, were taken from the public burying ground in Alexandria county yesterday Cury, formerly a resident of Richmond, Va. The body was exhumed by order of the county authorities at the request of a Mr. Martin, who came here from Richmond under the belief that the dead man was his uncle. In company with Mr. B. Wheatley, the undertaker who had charge of the cheviot and worsted fall suitings to body was sent to Richmond last night for from Pennsylvania when he was struck and killed by a locomotive.

. Unknown Man Killed. An unknown man was struck and instantly killed by a locomotive last night about 10 o'clock in the vard of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad, about a mile south of this city. By order of Justice Bowie of Fairfax county the remains were brought to the undertaking rooms of W. Demaine & Son, in this city, to await efforts at identification. Justice Bowie viewed the remains last night, but had not decided then whether or not to hold an inquest. The man was apparently about fifty-five years of age. He was of medium height and wore a gray beard. Jus-tice Bowie will examine the body again, and may hold an inquest this afternoon. The circumstances of the accident are not

Meeting of Police Board.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of police commissioners was held last evening with Mayor Paff presiding. Most of the session was taken up with the discussion of certain changes which had been proposed with a view of improving the management of the police force. The authority of the board to remove policemen for cause was pointed out, and attention was called to the fact that the mayor has the right to suspend an officer for a period not to exceed thirty days, or pending the action of the board. The board, it was explained, is empowered to review the action of the mayor, but it is not vested with the power to suspend an officer. A discussion arose over the inquiry of Mayor Paff as to the sense of the board with regard to the operations of the police force remaining under the control of the mayor. It was proposed to defer the consideration of this question until the next meeting, but Messrs. Hill and Graham spoke in favor of the mayor's position and saw no reason for delay. Mayor Paff made several suggestions as to the management of the force. He an-nounced himself to be in favor of desk sergeants for the police station and a patrolman. His statements, he said, were in the nature of suggestions, and were not dis-ussed. Mayor Paff announced his inten-The most fashionable of the fashionable brown suitings for fall and winter are shown by Owen. instructions by the mayor.

Asks for Investigation.

A resolution was introduced by Commisioner Fisher calling upon the mayor to investigate the charge made in the corporation court a few days ago by Commonwealth's Attorney Brent to the effect that Lieutenant Smith had failed to give him certain information concerning a case being tried. The resolution also requested the mayor to ascertain why the accused in the case in point had not been arrested im-mediately after the stolen goods had been found upon or near his premises. ton, Who Killed Cockrill. LEXINGTON, Ky., September 22 .- The hearing of the Breathitt county feud case has been transferred from Jackson, Ky., to this city by the indictment here of Wm. Britton on the charge of killing James Cockrill, town marshal of Jackson, two years ago.

A large posse, including officers of three counties, started after Britton, determined to get him today, dead or alive. Former Prosecutor Byrd, who conducted the cases against Curtis Jett and Thomas White, brought witnesses here from Breathitt county, and stated that these witnesses had been and still are afraid to testify at Jackson.

Cockrill was shot down in the street at Jackson, but was brought to Lexington, where he died. The indictment was secured here, and the warrant issued under the statute providing "that in any case which has its origin in one county and its culmi-nation in another either county shall have jurisdiction thereof."

This feud broke out with the killing of Benjamin Hargis by Thomas Cockrill, brother of the late town marshal. While Thomas Cockrill was in jail Dr. Cox. the guardian of the Cockrill heirs, was killed from ambush, and soon afterward James Cockrill was shot, and the feud continued until Attorney J. B. Marcum was shot and killed at the court house.

Curtis Jett was tried and sentenced to death in another county for killing James Cockrill, and that case is now pending be-fore the court of appeals. It is alleged that Jett and Britton acted together in killing Cockrill, and Jett and White in killing Marcum.

Britton Captured.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., September 22 .- A special from Jackson, Ky., says: Officers from Fayette county have arrested William Britton and started for Lexington with him. A posse of Britton's friends has left Jackson to rescue Britton, and, if possible, keep him in Breathitt county. Deputy Sheriff Terry and Coroner Bailey of Fayette county, who were given a bench warrant from that county for Britton, effected the arrest without trouble. Britton was taken completely by surprise at his home. Mrs. Britton quickly sent word to County Judge James Hargis, who is a cousin of Britton, saying that her husband had been arrested and asking that the judge send men to release him. A posse of Britten's friends has left Jackson to meet Deputy Terry, but the latter, hearing of this, started with his prisoner in a buggy for Torrent, in Wolfe county. He will take the train at Torrent this afternoon for Lexington, unless he is over-powered en route by Britton's friends.

While working at a stone quarry on the Potomac river, above the Aqueduct bridge, late yesterday afternoon, Benjamin Johnson, a colored laborer, twenty-five years of age, was struck on the head by a heavy stone, which fell from the heights above him. The man was picked up by some of his fellow-workmen and an ambulance was sent for. The seventh precinct patrol wagon responded and Johnson was carried to the Georgetown University Hospital, where scalp wound.

The residence occupied by Mrs. John

Georgetown, re-sponded. Fireman Frank Clements was on the scene before the arrival of the fire company, and succeeded in extinguishing the blaze. Ten dollars will probably cover the damage.

Laborer Injured by Fall.

George Reed, a colored bricklayer, thirtytwo years of age, is suffering at the Georgetown University Hospital from injuries sustained in a fall yesterday while working on the new Georgetown University buildings. Reed was standing on a high scaffold beside one of the new structures and accidentally alighting upon a pile of huge rocks beneath the scaffold and sustained severe injuries about the head and body. In a semi-con-scious condition he was taken to George-town University Hospital in the seventh precinct patrol wagon.

Mr. William B. Casilear of Georgetown has purchased the Randolph Nixon farm, near Leesburg, Loudoun county, Virginia.

METHOD OF INVESTIGATION. Questions Asked by Committee Which is Probing the District Service. "How many days' leave of absence have the employes of your office taken this vear? "How many employes of your office are bonded? To whom bonded? In what amount and by what authority?"

"Submit a list of the employes in your office, their respective work and salary.' "Give a detailed statement relative to the methods followed in transacting the business of your department."

The foregoing are some of the questions being asked of the heads of the various departments of the District government by the committee appointed by the Commissioners to investigate the several branches of the municipal service.

This much is about all that can be ascertained relative to the course pursued by the investigating committee in its examination. Beyond this information the impenetrable veil of secrecy is tightly drawn by the members of the probing committee. Nothing further with respect to the course of the investigation will be given out by the committee until its re-port to the Commissioners has been made rublic.

The committee was busy with its probe at the District building today, and the heads of the several departments were prompt in supplying answers to the ques-tions and in furnishing the statements requested. All the heads of the depart-ments seem to be viewing the prospective results of the investigation with compos-ure and show no signs of apprehension that any glaring faults will be discovered in their respective departments. In other words, they say they sit secure in their own knowledge of righteous dealings in the affairs of the District government, and they are not alarmed over any posible consequences.

It is believed at the District building that the report of the committee will not be ready for submission to the Commis-sioners before November 1.

Alleged Theft of Horse and Buggy. William E. Scollick was in the Police Court today charged with the larceny of a horse and buggy worth $200, the property of Reverdy J. Clagett. The latter is a cigar dealer at 302 4th street northwest, and, he alleges, there were several boxes of and, he alleges, there were several boxes of cigars in the buggy at the time it was taken. Scollick was arrested by Policeman King of Anacostia. When the case was called for a hearing before Judge Mills today Scollick waived an examination, and was held in $500 Lecurity to await the action of the grand jury. He furnished the required bond.

The Safest Investments

Are those that do not depend upon the financial responsibility or the stability of any individual or corporation. First deeds of trust (mortgage) notes liberally secured on good real estate in the District of Columbia constitute "glitedged" investments. These are the only kind we make and supply to investors. They bear interest, payable semi-annually, at the rate of Five per cent per annual and may be had of us in amounts from $500 and upward at par and accrued interest. Send for booklet, "Concerning Loaus and investments."
